Words of Encouragement in Turbulent Times
from Rev. Jed

Dear Friends: Thank goodness for summer, and things like walks on the beach, mini-golf, a week at the camp, ice cream cones or a favorite read to help blunt the recent onslaught of bad news and tragedy that just keeps on coming. We desperately need God's summer's graces to keep from despairing. So, in the spirit of encouragement, the next time you're taking a lazy moment to feed your soul, here are a few short quotations I and others have found encouraging.

2 Corinthians 4:7-18

But we have this treasure in jars of clay to show that this all-surpassing power is from God and not from us. We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed. We always carry around in our body the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body. For we who are alive are always being given over to death for Jesus' sake, so that his life may also be revealed in our mortal body. Therefore, we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal.

"The Serenity Prayer"

by Reinhold Niebuhr

God, give me grace to accept with serenity the things that cannot be changed, Courage to change the things which should be changed, and the Wisdom to distinguish the one from the other. Living one day at a time, Enjoying one moment at a time, Accepting hardship as a pathway to peace, Taking, as Jesus did, This sinful world as it is, Not as I would have it, Trusting that You will make all things right, If I surrender to Your will, So that I may be reasonably happy in this life, And supremely happy with You forever in the next.

"The Way It Is"

by Rosemerry Wahtola Trommer

*Over and over we break open, we break and
we break and we open.
For a while, we try to fix
the vessel—as if
to be broken is bad.
As if with glue and tape
and a steady hand we might bring things to perfect again. As if they were ever perfect. As if to be broken is not also perfect. As if to be open is not the path toward joy.*

*The vase that's been shattered and cracked will never hold water. Eventually it will leak. And at some point, perhaps, we decide that we're done with picking
our flowers anyway, and no longer need a place to contain them
We watch them grow just
as wildflowers do—unfenced, unmanaged, blossoming only
when they're ready—and my god,
how beautiful they are amidst
the mounting pile of shards.*

Life is not about "or," it is about "and."

by Kristi Nelson

*Life is not about "or," it is about "and."
it is magical and messy.
It is heartwarming and heartbreaking.
It is delight and disappointment.
Grace and grief.
Exquisite and excruciating,
often at the exact same time.*

"How I Build a Good Day When I'm Full of Despair for the World"

by Mary Pipher

Most of us cannot be great heroes. However, we all have the capacity to be ordinary heroes. We may not be able to stop the global use of plastics, but we can work with local environmental groups. We cannot eliminate prejudice or nuclear weapons.

However, we can deliver Meals on Wheels or repair bikes for giveaway programs. Only with heightened coping skills will we be able to rise above our shell shock and be who we want to be.

All of us have the capacity to do this, and when we do, we will increase our own happiness and be of greater service to those around us. Lao-Tse expresses this point in his poem that begins, "If there is to be peace in the world/There must be peace in the nations," and ends with "If there is to be peace in the home/There must be peace in the heart."

Summer Reading

Join other South Church members in reading Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents by Isabel Wilkerson. In this book, she gives us a masterful portrait of an unseen phenomenon in America as she explores, through an immersive, deeply researched narrative and stories about real people; about how America today and throughout its history has been shaped by a hidden caste system, a rigid hierarchy of human ranking. A copy of the book is available online or at the local bookstore (Gibson's is offering a 10% discount, just mention South Church.) If you are interested in participating in a book discussion on Sunday, September 16 after worship or have questions, please contact Kayla.

Summer Movie

Just Mercy (watch-at-home) is a 2019 American biographical legal drama film starring Michael B. Jordan, Jamie Foxx, Rob Morgan, Tim Blake Nelson, Rafe Spall, and Brie Larson. It follows a young lawyer, Bryan Stevenson and his history-making battle for justice. After graduating from Harvard, Bryan had his pick of lucrative jobs. Instead, he heads to Alabama to defend those wrongly condemned or who were not afforded proper representation, with the support of local advocate Eva Ansley. A copy of this movie can be borrowed at your local library, at the church, or on-line. <https://www.justmercyfilm.com/> If you are interested in participating in a discussion on Sunday, September 25 after worship or have questions, please contact Kayla.

Nevers' Band

Nevers' Second Regiment Band is the Capitol City's professional community band, dedicated to bringing an annual series of summer concerts to the greater Concord area and throughout the state. Its compound name derives from its military affiliation with the Second Regiment of the NH National Guard in the late 1800's and direction for more than half a century by Claremont cornetist, Arthur Nevers. Throughout its years of service, Nevers' Band has remained a professional civilian community band, but its military origins have always flavored its history and traditions.
