April 13th: Palm Sunday

"Hosanna, loud hosanna," the little children sang; through pillared court and temple the lovely anthem rang.

#213 "Hosanna, Loud Hosanna"

PALM SUNDAY

APRIL 13, 2025

Our Palm Sunday service will have a children's processional and a lesson in weaving palm fronds into crosses--and, of course, many joyful "Hosanna"s!

Monday, April 14th through Friday, April 18th: Labyrinth Walk

A labyrinth can be viewed as a metaphor for life or the soul's journey toward God: The hairpin turns represent life's twisting path, which leads unerringly toward a center; the concentric circles resemble enfolding "arms" that embrace you on your journey and contribute to a sense of enclosure, safety and nurturance; the cut-offs, viewed together, form a cross. Come walk the labyrinth laid down in Fellowship Hall for meditation, prayer, relaxation, or discernment.

MAUNDY THURSDAY

APRIL 17th, 2025

We will join in worship on Maundy Thursday at 6:30pm for a special service of words and music, communion, candlelight, and a dramatic reading of the story of Jesus' ministry, teachings, betrayal, and arrest.

(If you have signed up to participate in the dramatic reading, a reminder that the rehearsal will take place Wednesday, April 16th at 6:30pm.)

April 20th: Easter

"...the spirit bird of hope is freed for flying, our cages of despair no longer keep us closed and life-denying."

#231 Because You Live, O Christ

Easter Sunday

Worship at 10am

Prelude begins at 9:45am

Our Easter service will have all the elements we have grown to love: brass and choirs, Easter flowers, and lots of singing and hallelujahs! (And also bread. Who doesn't love bread?)

Come, bring bread to decorate our church space to be shared with our friends and guests on Easter Morning! There will be a bounty for all of us to partake of.

Our worship service will begin at 10am, with our prelude music starting at 9:45am.
